

Inclusive learning and teaching: Lessons from the last two decades

28th June 2017

Room GS5

Lunch and drinks reception: Room 1S3

9.00-9.30	Registration (Tea and coffee on arrival)
9.30-10.00	Opening keynote address: 'The Great Teacher Inspires' Ziauddin Yousafzai, Advisor to UN Special Envoy for Global Education Chair: Pauline Rose, University of Cambridge
10.00-11.15	Panel 1: Inclusive learning and teaching over the past two decades: What have we learnt? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Faisal Bari, Institute for Development and Economic Alternatives (IDEAS) Pakistan</li> <li>Angela Little, UCL Institute of Education</li> <li>Anna Vignoles, University of Cambridge</li> <li>Ziauddin Yousafzai, Advisor to UN Special Envoy for Global Education</li> </ul> Moderator: Pauline Rose, University of Cambridge
11.15-11.30	Tea and coffee
11.30-12.45	Panel 2: Assessing learning for inclusion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Paul Atherton, UK Department for International Development (DFID)</li> <li>Anuradha De, Collaborative Research and Dissemination (CORD), India</li> <li>Sara Ruto, People's Action for Learning (PAL) Network</li> </ul> Moderator: Ricardo Sabates, University of Cambridge
12.45-14.00	Lunch
14.00-15.15	Panel 3: Inclusive learning and teaching: Inside the classroom <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Elena Schmidt, Sightsavers</li> <li>Nidhi Singal, University of Cambridge</li> <li>Freda Wolfenden, Open University</li> </ul> Moderator: Laura Savage, DFID
15.15-15.30	Tea and coffee
15.30-16.45	Panel 4: Assessing teacher quality for inclusion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Kwame Akyeampong, University of Sussex</li> <li>Rabea Malik, IDEAS Pakistan</li> <li>Caine Rolleston, UCL Institute of Education</li> </ul> Moderator: Olav Seim, Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation (Norad)
16.45-17.00	Closing remarks
17.00-19.00	Drinks reception