

Working with Bullying in Schools: Exploring the Interventions

A joint Eastern Region Anti-Bullying Alliance and Faculty of Education Conference

Coordinators: Diane Le Count, Essex LA and Colleen McLaughlin, Faculty of Education

This conference explores the interventions that are used in schools to work effectively with bullying. The six most common interventions will be focused on by Professor Ken Rigby from South Australia, who is a world-leading researcher and writer on bullying. Other experienced practitioners, researchers and consultants will lead workshops to explore particular approaches such as restorative approaches, the method of shared concern and particular bullying issues will also be focused on e.g. cyber bullying, homophobic bullying.

Thursday 2nd July 2009

9.00am – 4.15pm, Room GS4

University of Cambridge Faculty of Education

Fee: £90.00 all inclusive

Keynote Presenter:

Professor Ken Rigby, Adjunct Research Professor and an Educational Consultant based at the University of South Australia.

Workshops and Presenters:

Rita Adair, Cyberbullying and Anti-bullying week

Lynne Blount, Children and young people at high risk of bullying

Barbie Clarke, Social networking sites, bullying and young people

Hilary Cremin, Restorative approaches to bullying

Andrew Moffat, No Outsiders: Effective responses to homophobic bullying

Ken Rigby, The Shared Concern Method

Apply to: Lyndsay Upex (lju20@cam.ac.uk), or please return the slip attached

Please return to: Lyndsay Upex, University of Cambridge, Faculty of Education, 184 Hills Road, Cambridge CB2 8PQ

Working with Bullying in Schools: Exploring the Interventions Conference

Thursday 2nd July 2009, 9.00am – 4.15pm

I would like to attend the above conference

Name:

Institution:

.....
.....

Email address / contact details:

.....

I enclose a cheque of £90 made payable to 'University of Cambridge'