

Admissions Policy

Members of the University

The Library Service primarily serves the needs of current students and staff of the Faculty of Education. However, other staff and students within the University of Cambridge are welcome to use the Library. When you first visit, please introduce yourself at the Library Welcome Desk and a member of the team will explain our Library regulations.

Information for visitors

Visitors who work or study in the field of Education can use the Library for occasional study purposes only. Please contact the Library Team (library@educ.cam.ac.uk) before your visit for further information.

External borrowing

A fee-paying membership is available to external users who are connected with Education. Please contact the Library Team (library@educ.cam.ac.uk) for further information.
