THE EDUCATION EMERGENCY

1.30-3pm, J2 Theatre & Live-Screened with Southbank Centre, London

What difference does education make to lives worldwide; what is the impact on women and girls of education being unavailable, inaccessible or actively denied? Joint panels from Cambridge and London will discuss these fundamental questions and argue for the right to safe and quality education for all around the globe.

Join in the demand for change and sign the #upforschool petition.

Speakers include:

Mariam Khalique, Malala Yousafzai’s teacher
Fatima Yakubu, Camfed
Dame Barbara Stocking, President, Murray Edwards College, Former CEO, Oxfam GB (Panel Chair)
Pauline Rose, Professor of International Education, University of Cambridge
Zoah Hedges-Stocks, first Cambridge University Graduate from the Showman Traveller Community
Baela Raza Jamil, ITA and ASER Pakistan (live-linked from London)
