Book Launch

Reflective Teaching in Schools, 4th edition by Andrew Pollard & colleagues

LfL invites you to a presentation of the new edition of Reflective Teaching in Schools, the definitive textbook for reflective classroom professionalism, written by Andrew Pollard in collaboration with his colleagues from the Faculty of Education: Kristine Black-Hawkins, Gabrielle Cliff Hodges, Pete Dudley, Mary James, Holly Linklater, Sue Swaffield, Mandy Swann, Fay Turner, Paul Warwick, Mark Winterbottom and Mary Anne Wolpert.

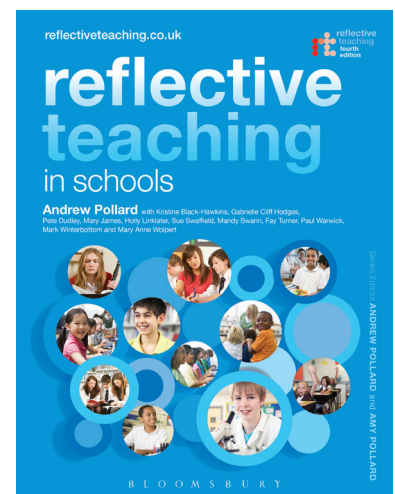

This new version of Reflective Teaching in Schools should be essential reading for every prospective teacher and their mentors. An ideal resource for inspiring excellence.

Dame Alison Peacock, Headteacher of Wroxham Teaching School and the Transformative Learning Alliance, Hertfordshire, UK

Andrew Pollard is Professor of Education and supports educational research at the Institute of Education, University of London, UK and the University of Bristol, UK. He taught for ten years before becoming a teacher educator and researcher. He was Director of the UK-wide Teaching and Learning Research Programme (TLRP) and both advised and challenged the government on the National Curriculum Review.
