

REAL at UKFIET

REAL Centre members are presenting at the 13th UKFIET International Conference on Education and Development Oxford – 15-17 September 2015

Learning for Sustainable Futures: Making the Connections

Sara Clarke-Habibi (and others): Quick Fire Presentations: Education in Emergency - Enabling Learning for Sustainable Futures in Conflict-Affected and Post-Conflict Environments
Tuesday 15 September, 11.30 - 13.00, Room 6, PS116

Pallawi Sinha: The Significance of Integrating Indigenous Knowledge, Cultural Practices and Skills towards Future Education in India
Wednesday 16 September, 9.00 - 10.30, Room 14, PS2414

Dr. Benjamin Alcott and Professor Pauline Rose (and others): Symposium - Targeting the causes of learning inequalities to achieve post-2015 goals: Evidence from Citizen Led Assessments
Thursday 17 September, 9.00 - 10.30 South School, PS37S

Dr. Sonia Ilie: To what extent does primary and secondary school access and learning determine progression to higher education? Preliminary evidence from South Asia and Sub-Saharan Africa
Thursday 17 September, 11.00 - 12.30, Room 15, PS3815

Dr Nidhi Singal and Professor Anna Vignoles (and others): Symposium - Understanding Activity Based Learning in Tamil Nadu: An investigation into Pedagogic Practices, Student Outcomes, Political Economy & Dissemination and Scale-up of the Programme
Thursday 17 September, 11.00 - 12.30 South School, PS38S