

Module 1: Perspectives on Globalisation and International Development in Education

Induction
Key issues in international development – implications for education
Global frameworks, international organisations and education
Educational financing and accountability in international development contexts
Systems approaches for educational policy and reform
Reading Week
Globalisation and geopolitics: contemporary debates for education and international development
Critical and post development paradigms in education
Conceptualising equity in educational access and learning

Module 2: Equality, Diversity and Inclusion in Education

Re-conceptualising inclusive education
Teaching and learning in diverse classrooms: poverty
Classroom reforms: the case of learner centred approaches
Reading/writing day
Including children with disabilities in educational spaces
Forms of inclusion in modern schooling: historical and ethnographic perspectives
Classroom teaching and learning with digital technologies: quality and equity issues
Open session with Route Coordinator. Bringing the overall picture together (Q&A session)

Module 3: Transitions into and out of Education

Economics of education and social justice in Southern Context
Social and wider benefits of education in international development
Lifelong learning education, transitions, barriers and opportunities
Reading/writing day
Early Childhood Education and Development in Global Contexts
Alternative, Complementary and Accelerated Educational Provision
Vocational education, skills, livelihoods and the world of work

Module 4: Policy Approaches to Educational Quality

Policy Priorities for Quality Education
The debate over private provision & PPP in education
Financial models for enhancing educational quality
Teaching at the Right Level
Thesis Preparation
Community mobilisation and support for accountability in educational
Education for migrant/ mobile / displaced / refugee populations